All the District Educational Officers in the state are informed that with an objective to minimise dropout rate and to increase enrolment, especially among girl students, Government have introduced the Scheme 'Badikosta'. Under this scheme bicycles are supplied to girl students of Class IX in Government/ ZillaParishad/ Municipal/ Aided/Model schools. After the Tender evaluation and based on the orders of Government the work allotment orders were issued to the bidders. It was instructed to distribute the bicycles among the students in the month of April 2017.

Besides, District Educational Officers were instructed to upload the information about distribution of bicycles in the mobile app. But till now the information is not uploaded/fully. The Hon'ble Chief Minister of AP is going to review the implementation of the scheme in two days.

The District Educational Officers are, therefore, requested to furnish the latest stage of distribution of bicycles in the following format.

S. No	Name of the Electoral constituency	Bicycles supplied by the supplier	Bicycles yet to be supplied by the supplier	Bicycles distributed to students	Bicycles yet to be distributed to Students	Number uploaded in the app	Reasons for not distributed & uploading in app

Further, they are requested to ensure that the information is reached in this office within two days without fail.
